Wellbeing Sessions

Emma Stewart, our Educational Mental Health Practitioner and her team are offering the young people and parents of our school some wellbeing sessions taking place across the summer holidays. Please see the poster below for further details.

If you would be interested in either your child or yourself taking part in the sessions please either speak to your child's class teacher or to Mrs Knowles. For further details on the support that Emma can give you please follow this link for our wellbeing page on our school website <https://www.chapelend.st-helens.sch.uk/page/wellbeing/125170>

The poster is set against a light blue background. In the top left corner, there is a stylized yellow sun with rays. In the top right corner, the NHS Mersey Care logo is displayed, including the text 'NHS Mersey Care NHS Foundation Trust' and 'Community and Mental Health Services'. A green leafy branch is on the right side. The main title 'ST HELENS MHST SUMMER GROUPS' is centered in a white cloud shape. Below this, a dark blue rounded rectangle contains the text 'EVERY MONDAY AND TUESDAY BEGINNING 24TH OF JULY AT TOTALLY WICKED STADIUM'. Two more dark blue rounded rectangles are positioned below, each containing a list of topics for young people and parents/carers. At the bottom left, two lines of text state that the groups are for all schools open to the service and encourage parents to speak to their child's school. At the bottom right, there is a circular logo featuring a globe, a heart with a brain inside, a row of colorful stick figures, and the text 'SPEAK UP, GET HELP'.
